

Salisbury Integral to Coastal Trails Network

Imagine being able to travel from the bustling mill village of Amesbury to the beaches of Salisbury Beach State Reservation; from shopping in historic Newburyport to the beaches and natural areas of Plum Island and the Parker River Wildlife Refuge in Newbury—all without getting in your car.

Salisbury's Coastal Trails provide an integral link in the Coastal Trails Network—a developing 30-mile system of bicycle and pedestrian trails linking our four local communities' unique coastal features, town centers, neighborhoods and transportation hubs.

Salisbury Trails

Salisbury Point Ghost Trail–Improved 1 mile gravel trail leading west from Cushing St. Easy walking or biking through quiet woodlands. Park at Bartlett St.

Old Eastern Marsh Trail–Unimproved 1.4 mile gravel trail between the Merrimack River and Mudnock Road. Easy walking or mountain biking through beautiful salt marshes with unspoiled vistas and varied wildlife. Park next to the trail at Friedenfels St. by the Merrimack.

Mudnock Road Link–Quiet 1.6 mile on-road route links east to Beach Road Bike Lanes via School St., Pleasant St. and Ferry Road. (Cross Route 1 at pedestrian light.) Mudnock Road also links west to Salisbury Point Ghost Trail. (Be careful crossing Route 110. Then follow Cushing St.)

Beach Road Bike Lanes–Wide, marked bike lanes 2.2 miles from Salisbury Square to Salisbury Beach, planned for 2008. Get refreshments at the Beach Center or visit our incomparable beach at Salisbury Beach State Reservation (1.1 miles). No charge for bicyclists or walkers.

Access and Parking P

Old Eastern Marsh Trail–Traveling on Route 1 (Bridge Road) turn west at the base of the Merrimack River highway bridge onto Friedenfels. Travel less than 100 yards and park in the unpaved lot on the right next to the trail.

Salisbury Point Ghost Trail–Traveling on Route 110 (Elm St.) turn onto Bartlett St. between SPS New England and Dairy Queen. Travel 200 yards to the parking area on the left.
